

CLAPTON PARK THEATRE

Glenarm Road, Hackney.

LICENSED BY THE LORD CHAMBERLAIN,

To Mr. THOMAS TURNER, of Glenarm House, Clapton Park,
The Sole Proprietor & Manager.

The above Theatre having at great Expense been made one of the most Comfortable Places of Entertainment in London, will be

OPENED ON SATURDAY NEXT,
February 20th, 1875,

BY A

TALENTED COMPANY

SELECTED FROM

London & Provincial Theatres.

On Saturday, Monday, and following Nights, after a Special Opening
Overture by the Band, a Sparkling Comediette, entitled

A ROLAND FOR AN OLIVER.

Sir Mark Chase - Mr. R. Marchant.

(From the Marylebone Theatre)

The Hon. Alfred Highflyer - Mr. H. Warburton.

(From the Olympic)

George Selborne, Esq. - Mr. H. Vaughn.

(From the Provincial Stage)

Fixture - Mr. Walter Stanton.

Gamekeeper - Mr. Weller.

Maria Darlington - Miss Laura Stanley.

(From the Theatre Royal, Norwich)

Mrs. Selborne - Miss Maria Willis.

(From the Standard)

Mrs. Fixture - Miss Julia Massey.

(The Great Local Favourite)

To be followed by an Original Drama, by J. B. Johnstone, Esq., entitled

THE SIGHTLESS BRIDE.

Marcel, a young Jeweller - Mr. H. Warburton

David & Julian, Workmen - Messrs. Groves & Hunt

Peloti, a simple young man - Mr. Stanton

Dr. Moncardo (Accredited with Supernatural Powers,) - Mr. Fred. Marchant

The Favourite Comedian and Author.

Jerome, Major Domo to the Baroness - Mr. Weller

Gervais, Serjeant of Musquiteers - Mr. H. Vaughn

Julie, the Sightless Bride - Miss Laura Stanley

The Baroness De Clercy - Miss Maria Willis

Blanch, a Waiting Maid - Miss Julia Massey.

With a Song.

To conclude with a Screaming Farce,

LOVE IN ALL CORNERS.

Quake - Mr. R. Marchant

Simon - Mr. W. Stanton

Captain Balding - Mr. Warburton

Charles Smart - Mr. H. Vaughn

Lucretia - Miss M. Willis

Rose - Miss Julia Massey

Sophia - Miss Laura Stanley

Stage Manager, Mr. R. Marchant

Musical Director, Mr. Stratford

PRICES OF ADMISSION:

Boxes 21s., 10s. 6d., & 7s. 6d; Front Balcony 2s; Stalls and Unreserved Balcony 1s.; Pit Stalls & Upper Circle 9d; Pit and Amphitheatre 6d. Children under Twelve half-price,

Doors open at quarter to 7, commence at 7.15.

CLAPTON PARK THEATRE

Glenalton Road, Hackney.

LICENSED BY THE LORD CHAMBERLAIN

To Mr. Thomas Turner, of Glenalton House, Clapton Park.
The Sole Proprietor & Manager.

The above Theatre having at great Expense been made one of the most comfortable places of Entertainment in London, will be

OPENED ON SATURDAY NEXT,

February 20th, 1875.

TALENTED COMPANY

SELECTED FROM

London & Provincial Theatres.

On Saturday, Monday, and following nights, after a special opening Overture by the Band, a sparkling Comedietta, entitled

A ROLAND FOR AN OLIVER.

Sir Mark Chase	-	Mr. R. Marchant
The Hon. Alfred Highflyer	-	Mr. H. Warburton
George Selborne, Esq.	-	Mr. H. Vaughan
Fixturo	-	Mr. Walter Stanton
Gamckeeper	-	Mr. Weller
Maria Darlington	-	Miss Laura Stanley
Mrs. Selborne	-	Miss Maria Willis
Mrs. Fixturo	-	Miss Julia Massey

To be followed by an Original Drama, by J. B. Johnston, Esq., entitled

THE SIGHTLESS BRIDE.

Margel, a young Jeweller	-	Mr. H. Warburton
David & Julian, Workmen	-	Messrs. Groves & Hunt
Pelot, a simple young man	-	Mr. Stanton
Dr. Moncrio (dressed with supernatural Powers)	-	Mr. Fred. Marchant
Jerome, Major Domo to the Baroness	-	Mr. Weller
Gervais, Sergeant of Musqueteers	-	Mr. H. Vaughan
Julie, the Sightless Bride	-	Miss Laura Stanley
The Baroness De Clergy	-	Miss Maria Willis
Blanch, a Waiting Maid	-	Miss Julia Massey

With a Song.

To conclude with a Sensational Farce,

LOVE IN ALL CORNERS.

Quake	-	Mr. R. Marchant
Simon	-	Mr. W. Stanton
Captain Balding	-	Mr. Warburton
Charles Smart	-	Mr. H. Vaughan
Intoretia	-	Miss M. Willis
Rose	-	Miss Julia Massey
Sophia	-	Miss Laura Stanley

Stage Manager, Mr. R. Marchant
Musical Director, Mr. Stratford

PRICES OF ADMISSION:

Boxes 21s., 10s., 6d., & 7s. 6d.; Front Balcony 2s.; Stalls and Unreserved Balcony 1s.; Pit Stalls & Upper Circle 6d.; Pit and Amphitheatre 6d. Children under Twelve half-price.

Doors open at quarter to 7, commence at 7.15.